DK COMMERCIAL

Susan Transtrum joins DK Commercial with a background in sales and marketing, and has been working in real estate and development for several years. Prior to obtaining her real estate license in 2004, Susan worked as a business development specialist in commercial construction. Susan uses this background to focus her efforts on investment properties utilizing financial analysis to help clients make informed real estate investing decisions.

A strong educational background, including a degree in Economics from the University of California and a Master's Degree in Business from Boise State University, allow Susan to apply advanced analytical skills to the exciting opportunities in real estate. Susan continues to educate herself and is currently working toward both her real estate broker's license and the respected G.R.I. designation.

Susan was raised in Idaho and enjoys the states' many recreational opportunities, especially skiing, snowboarding, water-sports and running. For quiet time, she is devoted to her yoga practice.
